IGNACIO VIDELA · VIOLIST

Repertoire

A selection, not a menu. I write every arrangement myself, so anything outside this list can be requested — send me the song that matters to you and I will write it for the instruments that will be there on the day.

Solo · duo · trio · quartet

How to read this list. Every title here can be played solo or arranged for duo, trio or quartet. Pieces are written out for the group that will actually be there, not taken from a fixed set of parts. Requests outside the list are welcome and are the normal case rather than the exception — a first dance, a family song, a piece in another language. For a club night the viola line is written for the tracks the DJ is playing, so there is no list for that at all.
